

ARE AMERICAN CORPORATIONS PEOPLE?
DID THE SUPREME COURT MAKE A COLBERT SUPERPAC POSSIBLE?
WHO IS SHAPING THE 2012 CANDIDATE POOL?

Come hear Floyd Abrams and Professor Richard Hasen engage in a lively discussion about the landmark Supreme Court case Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission.

Floyd Abrams is a longtime First Amendment lawyer and wrote the amicus brief for Senator Mitch McConnell in the Citizens United case.

Richard Hasen is a professor at UC-Irvine Law School, a nationally-recognized expert in election law and campaign finance regulation, and runs the Election Law Blog: <http://electionlawblog.org/>

Monday, March 5

12:10 pm

250 HH

Lunch Will Be Served

Questions? Contact jlgold@umich.edu

Courtesy of:

Michigan Election Law Project

Federalist Society

American Constitution Society

American Civil Liberties Union

Frank Murphy Society