ORDER

The issue in this case is narrow: whether § 82.003 of the Texas Election Code, on its face, violates the Twenty-Sixth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. This issue, among others, is also being addressed in a related case styled Texas Democratic Party et. al. v. Abbott, et. al., which is currently pending before the Fifth Circuit.<sup>1</sup> Although the Fifth Circuit has not yet issued a ruling on the merits, the issue is before a three judge panel and the merits will be addressed. For that reason, the Court stays this case pending a decision on the merits by the Fifth Circuit and the outcome of any appeal thereof. The deadline(s) for responding to any pending motions are suspended and will be reinstated when the stay is lifted.

SIGNED AND ENTERED this 10 day of June, 2020.
