Subject: Notification of Approved DOJ Observers in Orange County

To Whom It May Concern:

The below individuals are authorized representatives of the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) and may visit Vote Centers and the Ballot Processing Center (BPC) to observe election activities during the November 4, 2025, Statewide Special Election. They will be observing Monday, November 3 through Thursday, November 6.

- Michael Gates, Deputy Assistant Attorney General
- Cory Webster, Assistant United States Attorney

The DOJ representatives are permitted access to view publicly observable election and voting activities in accordance with California laws and regulations. Observers may not disrupt the voting process or impede voting activity. The same rules of observation apply to these and all observers.

Please extend courtesy and facilitate access to publicly observable activities at your Vote Center or ballot processing operation if this letter is presented to you.

If you have any questions, please call (714) 954-1901.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Bob Page
